

At last, for a mere $10.00 per month, I have total freedom in my listening preferences and since I prefer to listen to xm exclusively, I want to have local oriented weather and traffic as well as other local news/information services. Please do not cave into the NAB special interests...xm is a service that its listeners pay for so why interfere???

Long live xm!!